RICKEY SURE OF SISLER. Says Pirates Have No Real Claim

on Michigan Man. ST. LOUIS, July 21.-Branch Rickey nanager of the Browns, says he is not sion allowed the Browns' claim to Sis ler, he was positive that his pitcher-tinue performing at Sportsman's Park the commission some time ago, and we have its official verdict that he belongs to us," said Rickey. "So why should I worry?

"You can say this for me, though, that if the commission asks to reopen the case and reverses its verdict, Sisler will quit base hall and will not join the Pirates. He is well fixed financially and does not play the game for the money interest. I'm not worrying, and the boy will remain with the Browns." The Sisler episode contains this mixup: Several years ago he signed with the Akron, Ohio, club. The club and league disbanded, and then the Sisler contract was taken over by the Columbus American Association club. It was during this time that the Pirates investigated "Sis" and discovered that he had the promise of developing into a Pirates. He is well fixed financially had the promise of developing into star. Then Pittsburgh bought the S er claim and annually forwarded him ler claim and annually forwarded him a contract.

When "Sis" joined Michigan University and had this taint of professionalism against his record the Michigan University folk asked the commission to wipe out the contract. This was done, and now he is with the Browns.

CALL OFF BOXING BOUT. Dundee-Rivers Event Postponed Un-

until Friday night. The crowd of about 2,000 spectators expressed their disapproval and many of them refused to stay to see the two ten-round bouts the management furnished free. Rain checks given out will be honored at the gates Friday night.

Hundreds of men remained in the rotunda of the ball park and demanded their money back. The business of giving out the rain checks was poorly managed, and some of the spectators were treated with little consideration. It was not until Charles H. Ebbets, owner of the park, was informed of the condition of affairs that the protesting spectators were finally calmed. Up to the time that the show began there had been no rain at Ebbets Field, but it showered in other parts of Brooklyn and kept down the attendance.

The bout between Willie Jones and Eddie Wallace was a hummer, and full of action from the start. The referee stopped the bout in the sixth round, when both of the youngsters had pumwhen both of the youngsters had pum-meled each other soundly and were covered with blood. Wallace started out like a whirlwind, and for the first few rounds gave Jones a severe lacing. Jones' ear was cut in the sixth round, and both boys became spattered with blood. Jones was weathering his pun-ishment well when the bout was stopped.
